VERSE 1

     Dm   G   D
Well he wakes you at seven and makes sure you're dressed
     Dm   G D
And stoned you'll be up by eight
       Dm   G   D
And then he leaves you to wait in some cold vile street
     F   G   D
With the other little Princes of Wales

CHORUS

   Dm   G   D
Go back to the old town
   Dm   G   D
Go back to the old town
     Dm   G   D
You can die if you want to

F   G   D
I won't stop you

VERSE 2

Dm   G   D
Sunday, your business, sniffling in bed
     Dm   G   D
Too sick to remember a word
     Dm G   D
In a curious silence much older than gods
     F   G   D
The dying boy makes not a sound (He is blue)

CHORUS

INTERLUDE

     A   G
We give the poor disease and drugs
     Bm   Am7
We got mainstream life to keep us smug
G   D   E
Let the blue-faced lifeless corpse be heard
(Please)

      Dm      G       D
After sanity's ended
      Dm      G       D
And calamity beckons
      Dm         G      D
And humanity's senile
F         G       D
What are people for?

Go back to the old town
Go back to the old town
You can die if you want to

You can die if you want to Hell, you can die if you want to

Go back to the old town
Go back to the old town
You can die (You can die)
You can die (You can die)
You can die

Go back (Wake up)
Go back
Go back

Little boy
Little boy, it's time to go to Sandhurst
Go back (Wake up)
Go back (Wake up)
You can die (Go back) (Wake up)
