

Half A Day

Microdisney | Singer's Hampstead Home (1987)

INTRO

Bbmaj7 Abmaj7 Gm F C

VERSE 1

G Dm7
The first time I found

C G
My feet in this world

G Dm7 F
Was in a dim country sit-room

Eb C#
Where they spoke gently and whispered their name

Ab
Of an old crone lady

Ebmaj7
Dumb

Gm
But did she know

F C
Could she see

VERSE 2

G Dm7
When you run away

C G
You curse at my name

G Dm7 F
And when you come back

Eb C#
Sparks fly, it's light for a while

Ab
Til there's red in my eyes

Ebmaj7
And you

Gm F
Lie still on the floor

CHORUS 1

Bbmaj7 Abmaj7
Now if you want to, I want to

Gm F
What do you say

Bbmaj7 Abmaj7
I've got a lifetime

Gm C
You've got half a day

Gm C (x2)

VERSE 3

G Dm7
There's someone I miss

C G
Like there always is

G Dm7 F
She's not mentioned in here

Eb C#
Not mentioned anywhere now

Ab Ebmaj7
She's just someone I beat black and blue

Gm F
In those mixed up old days

Bbmaj7 Abmaj7
Now if you want to, I want to

Gm F
And no one's to blame

Bbmaj7 Abmaj7
We're few as those daisies

Gm C
That bloom half a day

OUTRO/FADE

Gm C
She's only dead

Gm
She's only dead

C Gm C
She's only only only only dead

Gm C Gm C
She's only dead
