

Humane

Microdisney | The Clock Comes Down the Stairs (1985)

INTRO

A

VERSE 1

E G6 F#
Sing "Give that fine young pig an Irish passport"

D Dmaj7 F#m B
My father threw a way his paper hat

A C#m
The pig just brought him thanks and said some

F# prayers

D Dmaj7 F#m
For the safe return of his departed head (That's

B
what he said)

VERSE 2

E G6 F#
If they kick you out you'll join the Army

D Dmaj7 F#m B
We won't let you lie around this house

C#m F#
I have slaved and prayed and so will you, boy

D Dmaj7 F#m B
To leave behind a wretched guilty past

CHORUS 1

G Am7 Gsus4/A
Humane the humane will die with a smile

G Am7 Gsus4/A
Firemen and barmen must eat their dinner

VERSE 3

E G6 F#
The factories were full of dancing bogmen

D Dmaj7 F#m
And the Irish food tycoons, they went to Hong

B
Kong

A C#m F#
My father gave up work 'cause he'd got so sad

D Dmaj7 F#m B
And I ran off to lie and starve and dream

CHORUS 2

G Am7 Gsus4/A
Humane the humane will die with a smile

G Am7 Gsus4/A
Firemen and barmen waiting all in a line

G Am7 Gsus4/A
And see de Valera, dead pig for a throne

G Am7 Gsus4/A
He says "No sun and no stars where you're going"

FADE

G Am7 Gsus4/A
